

Fun Fact About CHUM SALMON

Chum are the poorest jumpers of the Pacific Salmon. Obstacles like waterfalls don't stop other species of Pacific salmon but make it difficult for the chum. Often, this can stop their upstream migration resulting in them spawning further downstream.

To learn more about the chum salmon in Douglas Creek, and how you can help, use the QR code below.

<https://moundouglaspark.ca/web/QR/ChumSalmon.pdf>

JOIN US! For only 5.00 per year, you can be a Friend of Mount Douglas Park too! You'll receive our seasonal newsletters, keeping you up to date with opportunities to preserve this beautiful ecosystem.

Use this QR code to visit our website and JOIN Friends of Mount Douglas Park!

*Note: To use the QR codes, hover your phone camera over the code and follow the link that pops up.