

Friends of Mount Douglas Park

www.MountDouglasPark.ca

Twitter: @MountDouglasPark

Fun fact about ephemeral ponds.

Ephemeral ponds may not look like much more than a seasonal puddle, but they are extremely important to our local ecosystem. Thousands of young amphibians hatch in these ponds each spring and spend the first portion of their lives developing in them before moving to the forest. Some of these creatures are at risk of extinction!

To learn more about the importance of ephemeral ponds use this QR code or click the link.

<https://moundouglaspark.ca/web/QR/Ephemeral-Ponds.pdf>

JOIN US! For only $5.00 per year, you can be a Friend of Mount Douglas Park too! You'll receive our seasonal newsletters, keeping you up to date with opportunities to preserve this beautiful ecosystem.

Use this QR code to visit our website and JOIN Friends of Mount Douglas Park!

*NOTE: To use the QR codes, hover your phone camera over the code and follow the link that pops up.