

Fun Fact About RAVENS & CROWS

Ravens and crows can mimic human speech similar to a parrot! These large songbirds are extremely intelligent and can make a wide array of noises. There's been reports that crows can make as many as 250 sounds! In the wild both crows and ravens have been observed mimicking other animals however, if they're raised in captivity, they may choose to mimic human speech.

To learn more about RAVENS & CROWS click link or scan this QR code.
<https://moundouglaspark.ca/web/QR/Ravens-Crows.pdf>

Raven

Crow

JOIN US! For only 5.00 per year, you can be a Friend of Mount Douglas Park too! You'll receive our seasonal newsletters, keeping you up to date with opportunities to preserve this beautiful ecosystem.

Use this QR code to visit our website and JOIN Friends of Mount Douglas Park!

*Note: To use the QR codes, hover your phone camera over the code and follow the link that pops up.